JANET LORENE WRIGHT
4900 EAST LIVINGSTON AVENUE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school five years.

*"She smiles for the sake of smiling
And laughs for no reason but fun."*

In her radiant smile studded with dimples, Janet has a true indicator of her excellent disposition and sparkling personality. Always ready to lend a hand to anyone who needs it, she is a real friend to everyone. Janet possesses life's most desirable qualities—poise, friendliness, and charm. Fun to be with, always ready with a new idea, she is forever in demand as the best company one can have. Besides these qualities, Janet has the tact, foresight, and inborn ability that have made her an enviable president of Council. She acts as a strong link in the chain which joins the student body to the faculty, and does a fine job of interpreting the decisions of each. What more could a girl ask than to be a good friend, a good leader, and a good sport, who will be long remembered at C. S. G.?

JUDY LEE GIBSON
74 SOUTH CASSINGHAM ROAD
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school five years.

*"I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul."*

In the five years Judy has been at C.S.G., she has proved to be both a capable leader and a friendly companion. This natural-born leader, who commands the love and respect of all who know her, was president of our class in our junior and senior years; and she guided us with a firm and helpful hand. As a member of Scroll, Dramatic Club, Debate Club, and French Club, she has been outstanding as a hard worker who is always willing to contribute time and effort. On the other hand, she has a love of fun and keeps us in constant laughter with her immortal giggle. She loves nothing better than a good time as her Hallowe'en and other escapades have shown. Judy's mirth and steadiness make her not only a good person to lean on but also a loyal friend. Wherever she goes, a host of friends will follow her.

JUDY BARGDILL

174 E. LANE AVE.
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school two years.

*"Of friends she has many,
Of foes has she any?"*

During Judy's two short years at C.S.G., she has made many friends and become an important member of the class with her many talents and willingness to work. What would have become of our Senior project if Judy had not trekked around in all kinds of weather to arrange for the movies? And where would our class stand in comparison with the other classes in the numerous drives of the Philanthropic Committee if a capable person like Judy had not been here to remind us of these drives? Judy has also shown her artistic talent by becoming a member of I'Pittori, and her athletic ability by being on the basketball team. Judy's willingness, friendliness, and personality will win her many friends wherever she goes.

EVE BYER

2420 BRYDEN ROAD
COLUMBUS 9, OHIO

In school four years.

*"Hast so much wit and mirth about thee,
There is no living with thee or without thee."*

If you catch a quick glimpse of a small figure with bobbing black hair, dashing madly through the halls, it could only be Eve, attempting the impossible, attending five meetings in five minutes! In her four years at C.S.G., Eve has been one of the most enthusiastic and versatile members in our class—composing songs for the Song Contest, editing Scroll, and entertaining her friends by pounding out music on the piano from the classics to jive. The addition of her gay wit and fun-loving spirit has been a blessing to the class, but beneath her sparkle one can sense that Eve is serious-minded in her ambitions and assumes responsibility in attaining her goals. We know that Eve will be outstanding and win many friends wherever she goes.

MARGARET VIRGINIA CARPENTER
999 CAMBRIDGE ROAD
COSHOCTON, OHIO

In school two years.

"She sighed to many, though she loved but one."

With her twinkling eyes, warm smile, and laugh, Margie at once made a place for herself in our class when she came to C.S.G. two years ago. Her southern accent was the envy of all her classmates. Margie has many talents, but probably the most prominent is her artistic ability. She soon became a member of I'Pittori and has since become noted for her drawings. Not only can she draw, she also has great executive abilities. During her Senior year she carried the responsibility of president of the Lodge. The Class of 1950 is proud to have her as a member of their group!

Council: 4; Lodge President: 4; I'Pittori: 3, 4; Debate Club: 3, 4.

SUZANNE LYNNE DURSTINE
360 SOUTH COLUMBIA AVENUE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school six years.

"A mighty huntress and her prey was man."

With her radiant smile and a most individual twinkle, Sue has become a most vital part of our class. Elected president of the class in her first year at C.S.G., she ably served for three years on Council. In addition to her leadership ability, Sue is outstanding in athletics, especially in bowling. She has the enviable quality of making friends easily and so has become the one who helps solve all the love problems of the class. In all outside activities, Sue has taken a most enthusiastic part. She has been especially active in Scroll, where her writing ability makes her a valuable member. Sue's characteristic sparkle has won friends who will find it hard to part from her.

Council: 7, 8, 1; President of Class: 7; Secretary of Class: 8; Vice-President of Class: 1; Bowling Team: 2, 3, 4; Captain, 4; 2nd Hockey Team: 3; Captain, 3; 1st Hockey Team: 4; Captain, 4; 1st Basketball Team: 3; French Club: 3, 4; Philanthropic Committee: 3, 4; Classical Club: 3, 4; Dramatic Club: 3, 4; Color Guard: 3; Scroll: 3, 4; Secretary: 4; Topknot Board: 3; Representative to Buckeye Girls' State: 3.

JOHANNA MARY GREENWALD

2328 SHERWOOD ROAD
COLUMBUS 9, OHIO

In school five years.

"Out of her mouth oftentimes come gems."

Five years ago, a dynamic new personality appeared on the horizon of C.S.G. Full of enthusiasm and pep, this figure soon made a warm spot for herself in the heart of the school. Today, after those five years have passed, JoAnne has become noted for her innocent wit and her ability to make a riotous remark at the most opportune moment. She has also made a name for herself in the Dramatic Club. Who of us will ever forget her role as Le Tremoille in "St. Joan," her impressive portrayal of Queen Elizabeth in "Mary of Scotland," or her hilarious part as Tony Lumpkin in "She Stoops to Conquer"? JoAnne has proved her all-round ability in the many responsible positions she has held. Especially as editor-in-chief of "Topknot" last year, she did a marvelous job and showed her enviable quality of calmness in everything she does. Wherever she goes, JoAnne will be loved as she was here at C.S.G.

MARTHA ANN GRIFFIN

1071 SUNBURY ROAD
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school four years.

"A dogrose blushin' to a brook, Ain't modester nor sweeter."

In answer to "Hey, Ann! help me turn this heel," or "How about a ride home tonight?" Ann has constantly proved her willingness to help her classmates. During her four years at C.S.G., she has shown her music ability by being a member of the choir and by her ability to remain even-tempered in the midst of everlasting chaos. Her laugh has become famous among us, for it usually turns to a red face and tears. She has been active in many sports and has made a fine captain of the Color Guard. We feel sure Ann will find success and happiness in everything she does.

PATTI EUGENIA HARRISON
95 SOUTH PARKVIEW AVENUE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school thirteen years.

"Let the world slip, we shall never be younger."

Much of the laughter and happy memories of the past thirteen years has been the result of our smiling, fun-loving classmate, Patti. Can we ever forget her violent support of COKE and her equally violent threats to have pitted-cherries dropped from the school menu? Patti has imparted this driving enthusiasm to the many clubs and teams of which she has been a member. She has shown her leadership as captain of the Red Team in her junior year and as president of the Debate Club in her senior year. In her senior year, Patti triumphed over evil in being cast as the heroine in the Dramatic Club play. After two years of being plotted against, shot, stabbed, and poisoned, Patti finally played in the final scene and was still alive. Patti is also outstanding in her hospitality and in her love of riding, whether it be in her little car or on one of her favorite horses. Her smile and famous piano solo have become synonymous with good times.

CATHLEEN CHESTER HAWORTH
4906 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school seven years.

*"A perfect woman, nobly planned
To warn, to comfort, and command."*

Cathleen, better known as "Squeek," came to C.S.G. for Pre-school. Since then we have had her company off and on for seven years, and certainly missed her advice and management during her absence. She has been a friendly girl with a sympathetic ear, whom we all have burdened with our troubles. Not only has she always been a very loyal and ardent member of our class, but outside of school Cathleen is always ready for a good party and has given some of the best. We will never forget Squeek, who was constantly rushing to the doctor's either for her arthritis or a nose bleed. Nor will we forget her gray Ford that was always ready to take someone downtown or to the University. She's a great girl with big brown eyes and a winning smile.

In charge of senior pound: 4; French Club: 4; Topknot Board: 3; Assistant Business Manager: 3.

NANCY JOHNSON

2416 NORTH COMMONWEALTH PARK
COLUMBUS 9, OHIO

In school four years.

"And all that's best of dark and bright Meet in her aspect and her eyes!"

The words "But let me explain it!" issue from the art room as a slim, blonde, and wide-eyed figure stands appalled at the lack of artistic sense in her fellow classmates and defends her latest creation. We can well assume that it's Nancy, our main contributor to the field of art. For four years she has provided the class with riotous and increasingly appreciated entertainment. Her love of a good time has an infectious quality, and her personality is inimitable. Aside from the lighter moments Nancy is interested and serious-minded in her work and sincere in her friendships. We shall always remember "Nan" for her endless "mail and male" worries, her "last-minute minutes," her profound consultations, and the wielding of a "mean" hockey stick.

Council: 4; Secretary of Class: 4; Classical Club: Secretary, 3, 4; French Club: 4; I'Pittori: 2, 3, 4; Riding Team: 3; First Hockey Team: 3, 4.

NANCY LURIE

112 SOUTH ROOSEVELT AVENUE
COLUMBUS 9, OHIO

In school four years.

*"What noise, what shriek is this?
'Tis our own mad sister."*

For four years, Nancy has never failed to greet us with a cheery "Good Morning" and a detailed account of some juicy tidbit. She has that rare and contagious quality of effervescence. She is always ready with some clever and unique idea for a project, class-party, or whatever, and is always willing to stand behind these ideas. She possesses a determination that will not allow her to leave a job half-finished but always to see it through to the end. Nancy has a really wonderful disposition and, even at times when the rest of us are cross and irritable, is her own vivacious self. During her years at C.S.G., Nancy has managed to be included in nearly every available activity. She is always busy, darting from one thing to another, but somehow getting everything done, and doing it all well. What would we ever do without her?

BARBARA ANNE MORROW

511 EAST FIRST STREET
WELLSTON, OHIO

In school two years.

"How far that little candle throws its beams."

Though Bobby has been at C.S.G. only two short years, she has made many friends in every class. Cute and stylish, she has held a priority over the Lodge telephone, and her petiteness is the envy of all. As a member of I'Pittori and as vice-president of the Lodge, she has proven her artistic ability and leadership. With sparkle and wit, Bobby contributes to our class "discussions," and, in history class especially, her mind of information is limitless. So, good luck to you, Bobby! And may your wealth of charm—and men—never be exhausted!

Lodge Council: 3, 4; Vice-president-secretary: 4; I'Pittori: 4; Senior Pound: 4.

ANN ELIZABETH NELSON

9 SESSIONS DRIVE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school two and one-half years.

"Not that I love work the less, but that I love fun the more."

Ann's outstanding voice has made her a valuable member of Choir as well as an exceptional Choir president. Her ability to lead and get along with people has been clearly shown in her election as vice-president of the Columbus Senior Philharmonic Group. Every party with Ann's presence is sure to be a success for her marvelous sense of humor always sends everyone into gales of laughter. Ann's experience at Chatauqua has certainly made us all envious, but we are sure that her pleasant smile and happy-go-lucky gaiety are the qualities that make our Nellie a gem. She is not all merriment, however, for a more ardent and sympathetic friend is hard to find. We know that she will be a success wherever she goes, for she is one of the best.

Choir: 2, 3, 4; President: 4; Columbus Senior Philharmonic Group Representative: 3, 4; Basketball Team: 3.

SALLY LOU ORR

162 WEST JEFFREY PLACE
WORTHINGTON, OHIO

In school three years.

"The world is ugly, aye as sin, and almost as delightful."

Ever-present smile, big brown eyes, engaging manner, all add up to Sally. She keeps everyone's spirits up by telling us about that certain college weekend and her numerous other experiences. Sally has taken a very great interest not only in art, but in Junior Red Cross, as our representative. At parties, she is noted for her unceasing humor and her ability to be a friend to everyone under any circumstances. Ask her if she likes sailing, vacations, Chautauqua, and a certain young gentleman, and she invariably answers, "Yes." Her wit, direct approach, and vivid imagination all combine to make her an interesting and likable gal. It can truly be said that wherever Sally may go, success is sure to follow.

Philanthropic Committee: 2; Junior Red Cross Representative: 4; I'Pittori: 4; Volleyball: 2.

BARBARA FOWERS

336 HAMPSHIRE ROAD
AKRON, OHIO

In school one year.

*"I hasten to laugh at everything
For fear of being obliged to weep."*

It seems unbelievable that Barbara has been at C.S.G. only one year. However, because of that fact, we respect her for her great ability in making friends. Never is she without a smile and a witty remark for everyone. She creates a cheerful atmosphere which attracts others, making them eager to work with her. She is notorious for her "explosions" in the chemistry lab, which she efficiently cleans up with a "Never say die" expression. Barbara has been a valuable member of the Senior Class and a boost to our morale. So good luck, Barbara, in your future years. Your winning personality will carry you far.

DONNA LEE SCHWENKER

153 S. HARDING ROAD
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school seven years.

*"Fair of manner, fair of face,
And all her ways are full of grace."*

In her seven years at C.S.G. Donna has gained the reputation of having a constant wit, sparkling eye, and ever present friendliness. Never down in the dumps, she is always willing to lift the spirits of a downheartened class with some completely idiotic pun. Because of Donna's love for style she started wearing smart-looking suits and faced the tortures of walking on heels while the rest of us still filled the roll of perfect bobby-soxers. Donna has, above all else, a love and talent for ballet. She has worked hard both in and out of school to develop and perfect this talent. Good luck, Donna, for we're sure that our blond-haired, hazel-eyed friend will some day be queen of all ballerinas.

JEANNE HODGSON STODDART

586 CHARLESTON ROAD
WORTHINGTON, OHIO

In school eleven years.

*"She might be better if she would,
But it's so lonesome being good."*

When you see a figure towering over the rest of the girls, you don't have to stop to think who she can be. Of course, it is Jeanne. She has been in our class since Pre-school, with the exception of the fifth grade, and has added much to our class. Jeanne is full of energy both in and out of school as one can easily tell from the activities in which she has participated. She has been in choir the last four years and can harmonize with practically anyone. This ability of hers has entertained our class and others at many parties and excursions through the city at odd times of the day and night. Jeanne has well represented our class on the council several years. She is proof that good things don't "always come in small packages."

CAROLYN SHAW TREFFINGER

2379 BEXLEY PARK ROAD
COLUMBUS 9, OHIO

In school four years.

"She has two eyes so soft and brown, take care."

"Be careful about those O.K. cards" or "Bring in your sales-tax stamps" and "Please, girls, where's that team spirit?" These were greetings Carolyn gave us this year for she was our Red Team Captain, and a good one, too. Athletics is not her only ability, for ever since she came to C.S.G. in her freshman year, she has made our class complete with her many talents. If we had to decorate for a dance, Carolyn's artistic talent put it over; all those other little things that everyone else forgets, Carolyn always managed to get done, and by doing so saved the Senior Class. We certainly wish Carolyn the best of luck in college and know that she will be a success in whatever field she may choose.

HELEN RUTH VAN HOOK

2339 NEIL AVENUE
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school eight years.

"None but herself can match her."

The Senior Class would have been at a loss without Helen, for she has participated in every project. She is famous for her artistic talent and her ability to do anything. Whenever we hear a great commotion during our play rehearsals, we know that it is Helen busily hammering together the scenery. The plays simply could not go on without her! As president of the sophomore class, she led us with determined spirit, calmly finding a solution to every problem. The fact that she once won the Examination Cup shows that she is also an outstanding student. This year she was president of I'Pittori and proved herself to be the rightful leader. With her subtle humor and compatibility Helen has won the friendship of many. She has worked hard at C.S.G. and has reaped high rewards.

ELINOR VORYS

7073 HAVENS CORNERS ROAD
BLACKLICK, OHIO

In school three years.

*"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men."*

The Vorys family has definitely been well represented at C.S.G., but we all think that our class has the best of them all, for in the three years that Elinor has been here, she has made a permanent and outstanding place for herself in the class and won a large circle of admiring friends. Her warm personality, lively sense of humor, and the mischievous look in her eye make her loads of fun at all times and a definite addition to a party. We are all envious of her silky blond hair, that cute grin, and her delightful ability to pop up with a witty remark for every occasion. It is easy to see that with her engaging personality and quick laugh, she will be a hit wherever she goes. We wish her luck and happiness for next year and all the following years.

KATHRINE COPELAND WILLCOX

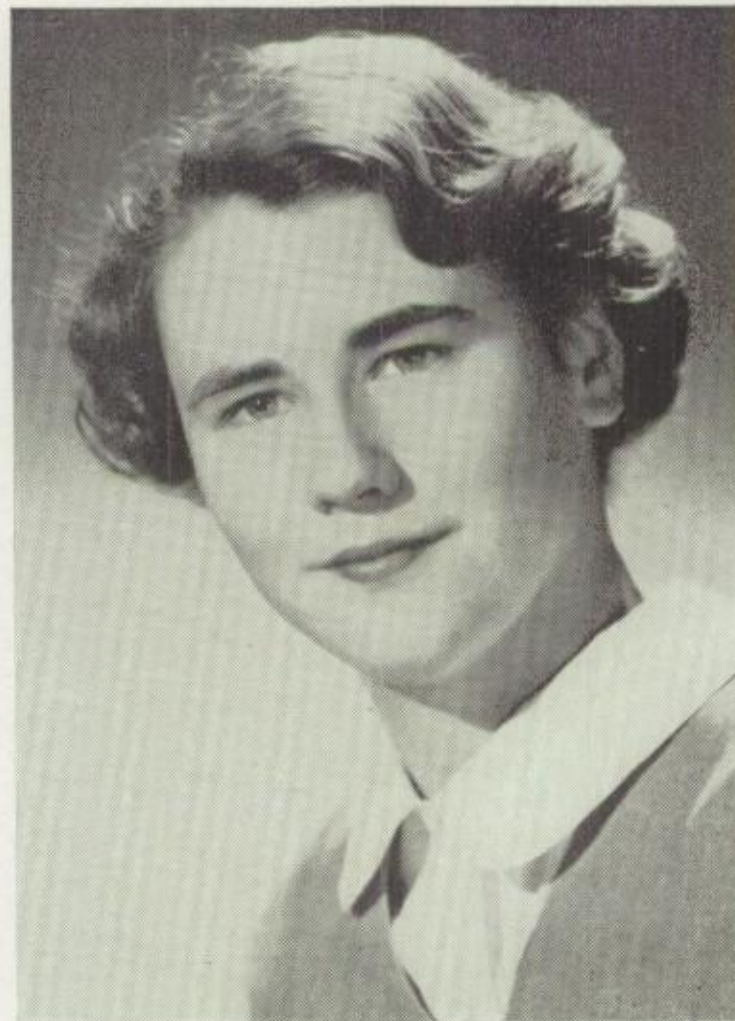

125 ASHBOURNE ROAD
COLUMBUS, OHIO

In school seven years.

"Hang sorrow; Care'll kill a cat!"

An impish smile and a merry laugh—that's Kitty. This sunny girl adds zest to every gathering with her bridge playing and funny jokes. Her enthusiasm and cooperation in all school affairs show that she is dependable and loyal. She is especially known for her constant support of Academy and for her luscious green convertible. This year Kitty was president of the Classical Club and a fine one she was too! Was ever a Saturnalia so gay? Famous for dependability, wit, and friendship, Kitty will always be well-liked. Lots of luck to a grand girl.

SYLVIA WESTERMAN

Here's that red-head again! Post grad Sylvia is roaming the halls once more in her youthful blue tunic and her ready grin. Syl's ever-present cheerfulness and cooperation is lending itself to the Senior Room for one more year—we wish we could keep her at C. S. G. as a permanent fixture!

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1950, being of unsound mind and not long for this world, do hereby will our various talents and traits to the Class of 1951 with the hopes that they make good use of them.

To Carol Blau: Patti Harrison despondently leaves her beloved washboard; and Kitty Willcox leaves her weekend security.

To Judy Cadot: Ann Nelson wills her title of "Sophisticated Lady"; and to counteract this, Ann Griffin leaves her maidenly classroom blush—it really works, Judy!

To Nancy Cottingham: Jo Anne Greenwald leaves her vacations by the lake and the subsequent wait for the mail (?) while Janet Wright wills the custodianship of the Senior convertible—the motto, "Tops down."

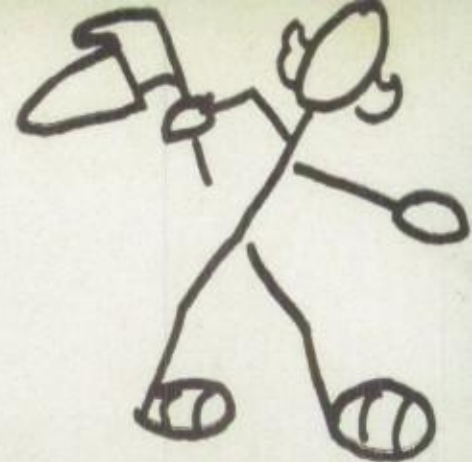

*To Barbara Ebner—*Jeanne Stoddart bequeath her long rides home on Saturday nights with the admonition to use them to advantage; while Judy Gibson leaves her bi-monthly dates with the barber, Barbara.

To Joan Evans: Nancy Lurie wills the presidency of the Smuggie Club and the seat by the pencil sharpener (the one on M.M.M.M.'s right); and Elinor Vorys leaves her bottle of H_2O_2 in case Joan ever needs to do the dastardly deed.

To Susan Hayward: Margaret Carpenter leaves her knowledge of the "real" outcome of the Civil War (O! I wish I was in Dixie!); and Donna Schwenker leaves her inimitable style—now live up to it, Susan, even in tunics, if you can.

To Jane MacGreagor: Judy Bargdill leaves her seat in history and her ability to make every seat a rocking chair; while Barbara Powers wills her title of the fastest sprinter to the Lodge mailbox.

To Brenda Mykrantz: Patti Harrison leaves her ability to fall off a horse gracefully; and Eve Byer bequeathes her envied waistline—no candies or pastries now, Brenda.

CLASS WILL

To Patty Nealon: Eve Byer leaves her relentless banging on the Senior Room piano with the hope that it will respond better to Patty's touch, and Bobbie Morrow leaves her ability to keep the Lodge in an uproar and never give in.

To Judy Roth: Sue Durstine leaves the honor of being M.M.M.M.'s daughter-in-law; and Sally Orr wills her love of beach parties along with her ability to be calm and collected in the face of all situations.

To Joanne Slater: Carolyn Treffinger leaves her bored expression with the sincere hope that the teachers won't take it too much to heart.

To Sally Smallsreed: Nancy Johnson leaves her 98% (watch it, Sally!); and Helen Van Hook wills her box of motheaten and bristleless paint brushes.

To Virginia Stage: Jeanne Stoddart wills all unpaid bills; and Nancy Lurie leaves her momentous television debuts.

To Nancy Watt: Margaret Carpenter leaves her bobby pins in hopes that she can make the Senior curl next year; and Cathleen Haworth leaves the job of dusting the voluminous volumes in the Senior Library.

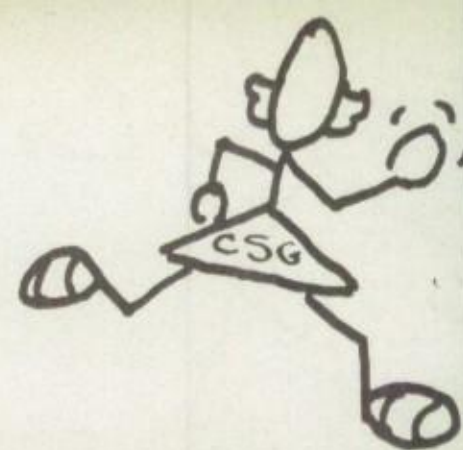

To the Class of '51: Cathleen Haworth leaves her ability to break all dates but the right one gracefully. No hard feelings, boys! To this class we also leave our Senior Privileges, including the Senior Room, Senior Study, our procrastination in completing term papers, and Miss Guion's pyrabenzamine for Senior colds.

To the Class of 1952 we leave the beloved Red Team and our burbling spirits.

To the Class of 1956 we leave our mascots—dog, deer, and ducks, our communion with O.S.U.—the scarlet and gray, our class song and our love for C.S.G.

To this we put our hand and seal on this, the eighth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty.

THE CLASS OF FIFTY

CLASS PROPHECY

The other night I had the strangest dream. I found myself far away from my laboratory, with Dr. K. C. Willcox on the door, and back in the old Senior room at C. S. G., a place I haven't seen or even thought about these last ten years. Actually, I haven't had any time, since all my waking and sleeping thoughts have been concentrated upon my latest formula, which is $K+Br \rightarrow KBr$. But to get back to my dream. There I was in the Senior Room with all the members of the Class of 1950 milling around me. Then I noticed something unusual. All the girls were wearing their work clothes instead of the customary blue tunics.

The first person I noticed was Kathleen (with a K.) Haworth, surrounded by a group eagerly asking advice on their latest problems. Squeek has established a new company, "Advice, Inc.," and I've heard her "words of wisdom" are now worth a cool million per person.

Then I saw Nan Johnson, who has carried on the Senior project of noon movies (this time to raise money for the Alumnae Association), but instead of cartoons she features Pete Smith Specialties. She was talking to Jeanie Stoddart about her work at Budd and Co., which Sue Durstine has recently converted to a shoe store, where she sells Stoddart's Platform Shoes for Short, Squat Squires.

An argument was ensuing about the relative merit of Bobby Morrow's Airplane Glue and Patti Harrison's New Overall Bill Glue, guaranteed to give an overall job. It has been recently banned from the market since it was a little bit "carruthered." (The true meaning of this new adjective can be found in Barbara Power's new book, Thirty Days to a More Powerful Vocabulary.) Bobby's glue has been awarded a medal as the "Glue of To Morrow."

Suddenly, I found myself up in the lab, where I saw two dark figures bent over the sink. Closer examination revealed the pair to be Elinor Vorys and Ann Griffin, skinning a lion. Elinor, who was previously the American Ambassador to Africa, was suspended from her duties since she spent too much of her time lion hunting. Her assistant, Ann Griffin, is the founder, president, head surgeon, staff, and patient of her own establishment—Griffin General Hospital.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hook, who has been studying recently in Florence, to paint new murals in the White House.

I was surprised when I looked on the bulletin board in the hall to find the NO ATHLETICS TODAY notice signed by none other than Sally Orr. Her specialty is bowling (on the green, of course). Another poster caught my eye: it was for the opening of the new ballet— Donna's Dancing Dolls, featuring Janet "Bubbles" Wright, accompanied by the music of Judy Bargdill's Girls' Chorus.

My dream suddenly shifted to the Lodge, where I found Margie Carpenter, the House Mother, eagerly perusing her latest letter from Carolyn Treffinger, who is in Paris. She told us that Carolyn became so interested in Existentialism that she took up permanent residence in the Cafe de Deux Magots to expand her knowledge of this confusing philosophy.

Probably the most successful members of the Class of 1950 are Joanne Greenwald and Judy Gibson. They rose from balloon venders in the Circus in 1954 to being the owners and operators of Greenwald-Gibson Balloon Manufacturers, Inc., in 1978. However, they have been forced to go out of business since a Senate investigation, led by Senator Lurie, convicted them of being a monopoly. They are back selling balloons on the corner of Broad and High now.

I found myself in the midst of a group of art history students, trooping off to the Art Gallery to see Eve Byer's modern prize-winning painting, entitled "Carefree." She used for her model and inspiration Ann Nelson, who has recently been elected "Most Carefree Girl of the Century."

Speaking of Nancy Lurie, this is her third term in the Senate. Through Senator Lurie's influence, the President of the United States has hired Miss Helano Van

The buzz of my alarm clock woke me with a start; and although I had had a full night's sleep, I felt exhausted after such a long journey. But then, it was fun to see my former classmates again, even though it was "Only in My Dreams."

The Junior Class, Class of 1951, is greatly indebted to Miss Schulz, who has served faithfully during the year as home-room advisor.

During the year, we have had many successful projects from the money-making standpoint. Our candy apple sale and the traditional junior bake sale proved quite profitable.

The Class has determined the policy of permitting the "Silhouette" to be published each year by the Sophomore Class. Our largest and most pretentious project has been the publication of "Topknot."

The class agrees that this year has been the most enjoyable year we have spent at C. S. G.

The Class of 1952 has completed a very eventful year. The highlight was the Freshman-Sophomore dance, a night which will be remembered always by the two classes. The theme of the dance this year was the famous Mississippi "Showboat."

The Sophomore Class enjoyed the clever class party given by the Class of '51. The Sophomores were proud of the successful class party which they gave for the class of '53.

The treasury was increased by an extremely profitable "money raising" campaign, lasting for two weeks. Another project was the selling of engraved C. S. G. stationery.

Thanks and appreciation must be extended to Miss Rowe, whose guidance and leadership have made 1950 the "best year" for the class of '52.

This year has proved the most exciting and interesting year that we, the Class of '53, have yet encountered.

Our first adventure as Freshmen was a candy sale in the fall. Then we enjoyed giving our annual class party for the Eighth Form in February, with a skit on "The Legend of C. S. G."

We had waited with eager anticipation the night of the Freshman-Sophomore dance, when we ventured forth in formals with gay music and the boys. We felt rewarded for all the hard work of decorating for we had a most delightful evening.

We gave the "Shades of Shakespeare" in April. Although the Shakespearean lines are long and difficult, we greatly enjoyed presenting its scenes. In the spring the Freshmen also held a tea for their mothers and teachers, an annual event for the Class of '53. Each year we look forward to this special gathering with great enthusiasm.

The class has thoroughly enjoyed its added privileges and responsibilities.

The first project of the Eighth Form was a candy sale, which proved very successful. Later a baby party was sponsored for the Seventh Form; faculty guests judged the girls for originality and beauty of costume. The class has sold both picture post cards of the school for the Alumnae, and C. S. G. beanies throughout the Upper School.

We have grown up during the year and are grateful to Mrs. Geist and our other teachers for everything, and are looking forward to being freshmen next year.

The Class of 1955 has finally adjusted to the Upper School under the able direction of Miss Hickman. Through experience we have learned much about class projects and candy sales.

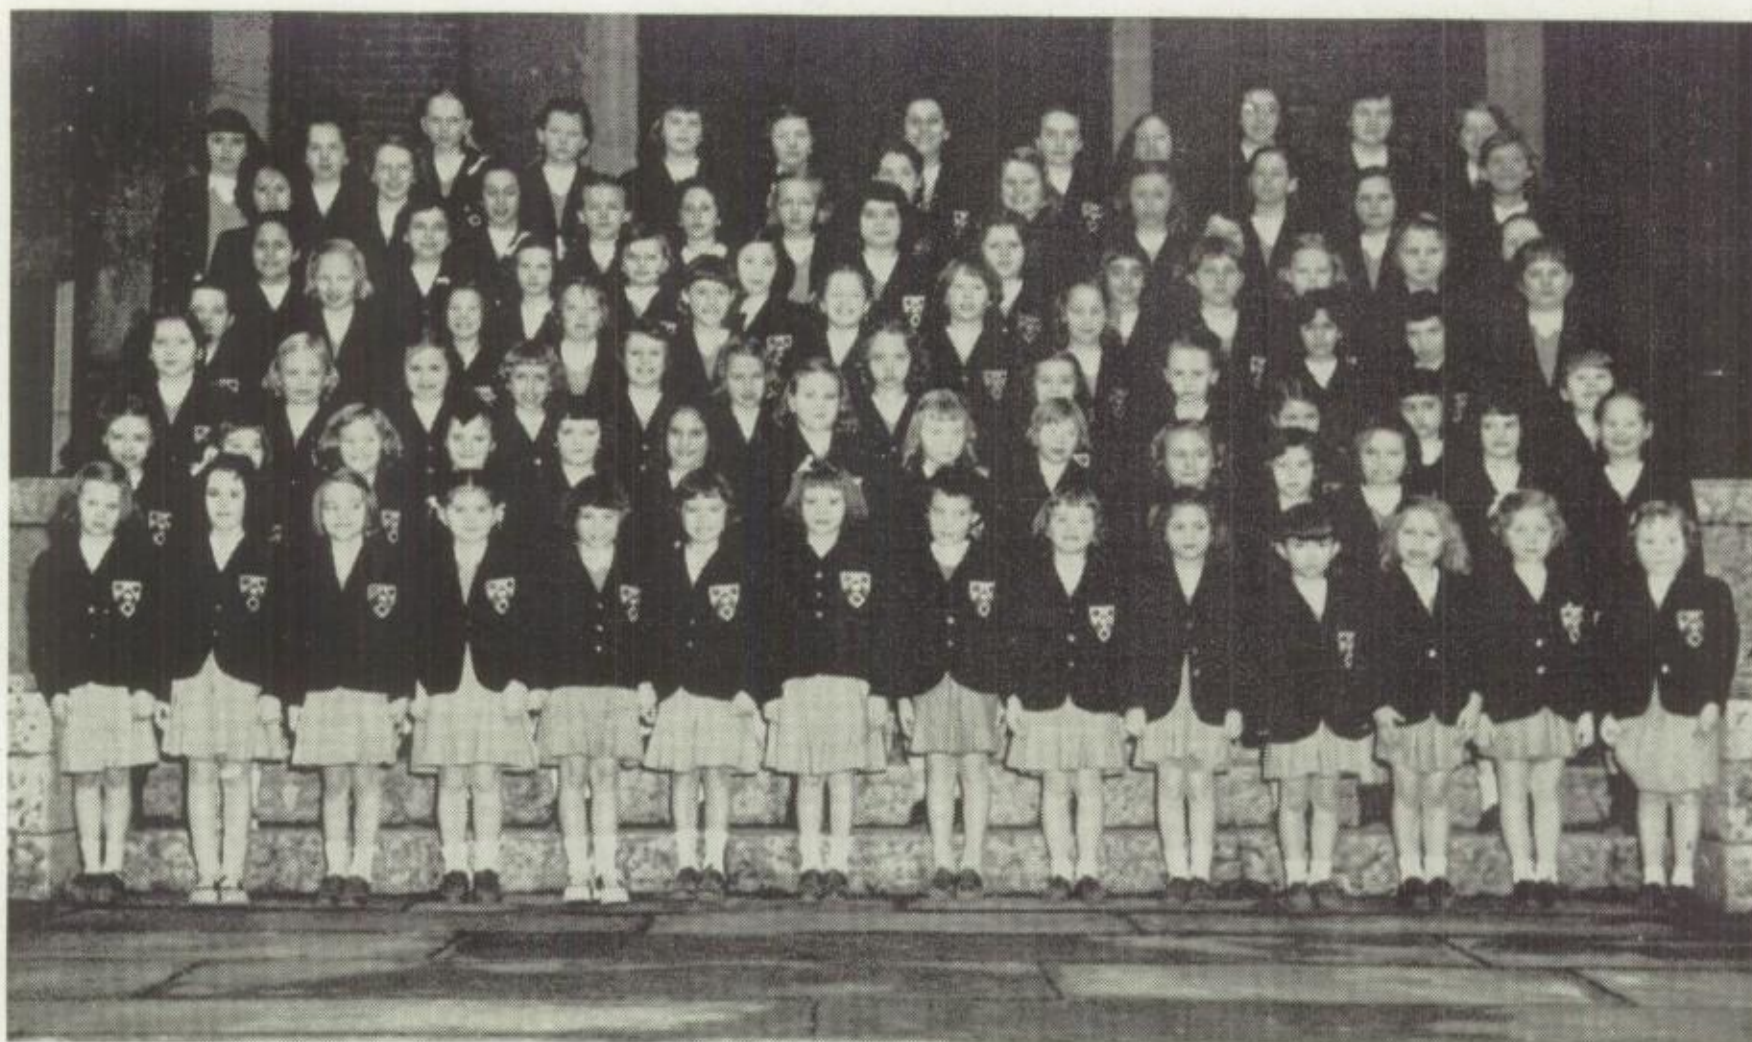

The Seventh Form greatly enjoyed the baby party given for us by the Eighth Form.

We are looking forward to our next year in the Upper School.

PRE-SCHOOL

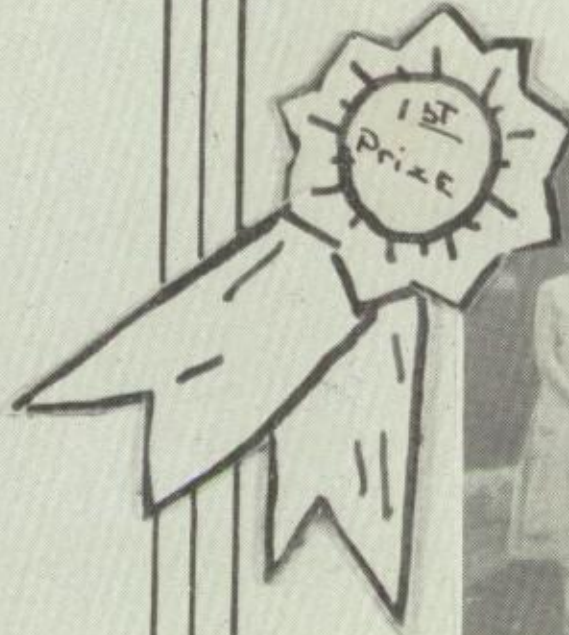

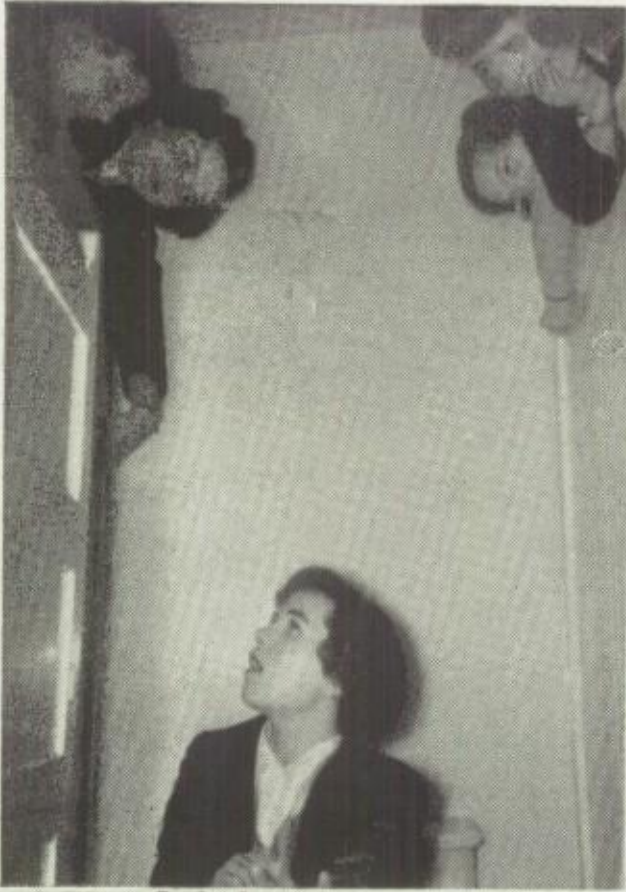

It is the aim of our preschool to give the child the best possible environment for physical, mental, and social development of every child enrolled. This has been accomplished by having a pleasant, cheerful, and attractive preschool room. It is equipped with materials and play toys which stimulate the child's growth in every respect. Thus through music, art, stories, dramatizations, and dancing, we achieve our goal in preschool.

Both the hockey teams have had a good year. Every girl, whether she was on a team or not, has had great fun and excellent training. Our teams have competed with many schools, including Bexley, Grandview, Arlington, and University, and have made many new acquaintances. The girls made this year a cooperative and enjoyable season. Our most successful game was the last one with University High School. We all feel that we have made great progress. Our improvement is due to Miss Dowd, with whom we have had exciting times, and who has taught us all the tricks of the game. We'll miss the "old hockey team," but next year's team is bound to have as good a year as we have had.

SOCCER

The soccer team had a very successful year under the capable direction of Miss Vorys. On every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, a group of girls, in the school bus and in private cars, sped to the farm to get those long-awaited positions. Before each game the rules were reviewed and then the action began. Near the closing of farm there was a Red-Gold game, which was won by the Red team after a hard fight with the Golds.

This year proved a lot of fun in volleyball. We didn't always go to the farm but played our games on the baseball diamond at school. We learned essential team spirit and cooperation and really had a fine time. The reward for our efforts was receiving our emblems at the end of the school year. We all join in thanking Miss Dowd and Miss Vorys for another successful year of volleyball.

BASKETBALL

The only important game played this year was the one between the First and Second Teams, a game which was won by the First Team. The score was very close, proving the peak of excellence in Miss Dowd's coaching.

Becky Bonnell was elected captain of the First Team and Nancy Cottingham, captain of the Second Team.

The Swimming Team, under the direction of our new and able instructor, Francis Connin, improved their stroke and diving form.

The older girls undertook the project of originating their own water ballet, which proved very successful. This assignment gave the girls initiative and the responsibility to work together to make the ballet a success. This season has been an exciting and eventful one.

BOWLING TEAM

The bowling classes, organized late in March, had a very successful season. Each girl became a member of a team; and the teams competed against one another. The Red Team won in Red-Gold competition, and was the first to have its name engraved on the new trophy, presented to C. S. G. through the courtesy of the Broad- Olympic Bowling Alley. Sue Durstine captained the Red Team and Judy Roth captained the Gold Team.

RIDING—SPRING SPORTS

We at C. S. G. have unanimously declared horseback riding the most enjoyable sport of all sports. We realize that to achieve the supreme pleasure from this sport we must first learn how to stay on a horse. For this information, we turned to Mr. William B. Alexander and the Columbus Riding Club, and every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, rain or shine, snow or sleet, a different group of us C. S. G. horse enthusiasts hasten to the stables, where we are assigned a mount and set out for an hour of instruction and fun. After our long hours of mental labor in our classrooms, we welcome this chance for relaxation in the invigorating cold of the indoor ring, and the opportunity to show that, though we C. S. G. students are usually "bookworms," we can, and do, enjoy a rugged outdoor sport such as horseback riding.

The Council, under the able leadership of Janet Wright, has attempted to make the student government more effective during the past year. Our first step was to make an effort to revise the old charter and in doing so define the powers of the Council more clearly. A new disciplinary system, substituting a merit and demerit system to be administered by the Disciplinary Committee of Council instead of the OK Card System, was adopted.

As well as the duties of student government within the school, itself, the Council has continued its support of the school in Heidelberg, Germany. Used clothing and new books were sent by a committee, headed by Judy Cadot. A great deal of credit for the success of this project is due to Mrs. West, who gave freely of her time and energy to help us.

The Council feels that a great deal has been accomplished this year, and trusts that the years to come will be even more successful under the new charter.

PHILANTHROPIC COMMITTEE

The first project of the Philanthropic Committee was the Community Chest Campaign in late October. The annual quota for Columbus School for Girls was $500.00; we rated second in the Educational Division with 111.5%.

Early in the fall the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Forms filled a large duffel bag with new baby garments for the Needlework Guild.

The Lower School filled thirty-six boxes for the Junior Red Cross for over-seas service.

The Thanksgiving donations of food were delivered to the Day Nurseries and Settlement Houses of Columbus.

At Christmas the Upper School gave Christmas cartons of food and gifts to twelve indigent families on the Godman Guild lists.

The final drive for the year 1949-1950 was the spring Red Cross Drive.

Miss Helen Roberts, Dean of Columbus School for Girls, headed the Philanthropic Committee, with Mrs. Lovell as assistant in the Lower School and Miss Freda Schulz as assistant in the Upper School.

We have had, on the whole, a very happy year at the Lodge, from the moment last fall when we walked into the redecorated Lodge. The knowledge of complete freedom to go home on week-ends has helped greatly. The social aspect has been much brightened by our fall Open House and later in the year by the Snowfall Dance. The girls looked lovely and the music was perfect. We have grown to look forward to the Thursday evening dinner parties, where we found clever decorations and delightful company. We only hope our guests enjoyed the dinners as much as we did.

The Student Council, under President Margaret Carpenter, has had a large voice in setting the standards by which we live.

These are just a few of the memories the Lodgers will take home with them along with the Secret Sister Week: five minute phone limit, midnight fire drills, after-dinner walks in the spring, and the Charleston in the living room.

We are all grateful to Mrs. Crossen, Miss Rowe, Miss Frohock, and Miss Hickman for helping to give us this pleasant memory of the year—1949-1950.

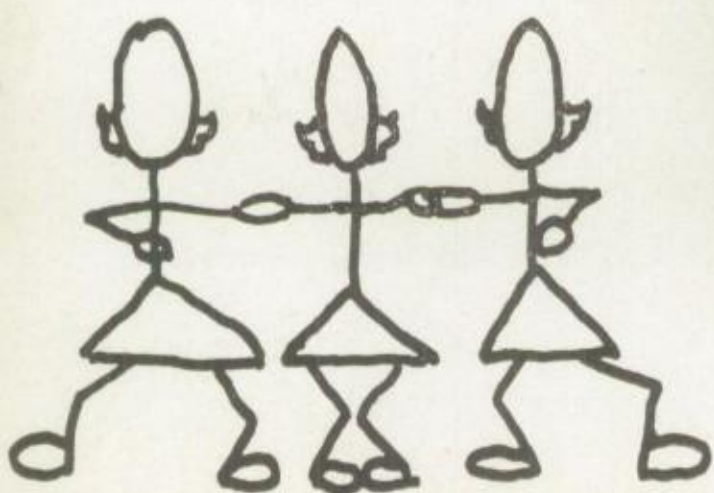

TEACHERS' PARTY

The annual Teachers' Party was originally a birthday party for Miss Gladden, one of the co-founders of our school. Because her birthday came late in October, this festivity took the form of a Halloween masquerade.

The teachers' skit was based on Mother Goose rhymes. There was a pony chorus led by Mrs. Kanengeiser, and Miss Cavers danced a highland fling.

Many girls dressed similarly, since costumes were not for team points. There were girls representing the Nine Nurses, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, and "I'm a Lonely Little Petunia in an Onion Patch." Helen Van Hook received the first award as the unicorn of the school's coat-of-arms. After a simple lunch the evening ended.

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS

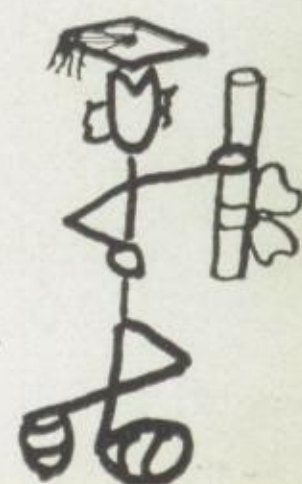

The annual Christmas Dinner was held the Thursday night before vacation. The girls of the four upper classes, the faculty, alumnae, and guests attend. The choir sings carols before the dinner on the balcony of the Southern Hotel, and, during the program, in the ballroom. After an address by the guest speaker the athletic awards are given. The climax of the evening is reached when the team cup is awarded to the Red or the Gold Team.

DEB

The rustle of silk and taffeta, the scent of flowers, soft lights, and rhythmic music—yea, you guessed it. The Freshman-Sophomore Dance! Each year the formals, decorations, and girls seem to get prettier. This year was no exception! The theme of this year's dance was the famous Mississippi "Showboat." Careful planning and earnest cooperation helped to make the dance a real success.

The chairmen of the various committees were: Corinne Francis, Jane Power, and Jane Huffman, general chairmen; Becky Bonnell and Pucky Whitney, refreshments; Sally Dawes, invitations; Nancy Zox, decorations; Nancy Slade, publicity; Nancy Dial, building maintenance; Carol Hirsh, music; Betsy Blocker, corsages; and Carol Brooks, programs.

PATE CLUB

The members of the Debate Club, with the invaluable aid of Mrs. Geist, have had a very successful year. We increased our membership to fourteen at our annual initiation tea, which was held at Susan Hayward's home.

The two controversial debates which became our Chapel Programs were: Resolved That the Student Council Should Be Student Controlled, and Resolved That the Number of Displaced Persons Brought into the United States Should Be Limited.

Since we are all looking forward to another spirited year, we have resolved to have even more lively debates.

The Choir, under the excellent direction of Mrs. West, has had an excellent year. Each morning we have led the singing in Chapel, and have sung at various special occasions.

At the traditional annual Christmas Dinner, the Choir, dressed in crisp white collars and red bows, sang on the balcony of the Southern Hotel, and were an important part of the program. There were five selections, two of which were done in French.

As our year is drawn to an end the Choir again is an important part of the main program, for they were chosen to lead the commencement procession down the aisle and sing the beloved school hymns. So ends another year.

I'PITTORI

This year, at last, we completed our plans for an annual exhibit, which we held in Bryden Hall during the month of May. In this exhibit we included at least one piece of work from each class in the upper school, and quite a few from the lower school. On the opening day we had a tea for the parents and girls, at which the work was judged by outside artists. In addition to this project, I'Pittori assisted the Dramatic Club in the staging and scenery of its major production, and as usual, we designed and printed the programs for the Christmas Dinner, thus bringing the year 1949-1950 to a successful close.

Cette année C. S. G. a vu la renaissance du Cercle Français après un bref intermède. A cause de notre département de Français enthousiaste, nous l'avons réorganisé sous la direction capable de Mademoiselle Rowe.

Pour ne pas être dépassé par le Club Classique, nous avons célébré la fête des Rois, le cinq janvier avec le gâteau traditionnel dans lequel se trouvait franc français. Mademoiselle Byer a reçu le morceau du gâteau contenant ce franc, et a cause de cela, elle a régné suprême toute la journée.

Deux fois, le Cercle Français a visité le théâtre, et nous avons vu deux bons films français Monsieur Vincent et La Symphonie Pastorale, adapté d'un roman d'André Gide.

Nous avons tiré du profit de notre Cercle Français, et maintenant nous sentons que nous pouvons passer à Paris comme de vraies françaises.

CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club has had two meetings this year. The first was a tea to which the new members were invited and a Latin play which afforded great amusement was given.

The second meeting was the "Saturnalia." The Club made this festival more Roman by dressing in authentic costumes and by decorating in the Roman manner, by eating typical Roman foods such as fruits, nuts, "mulsum," and pork, and by the reading of poems and plays. Under the able direction of Miss Dunlevy, it was a great success, affording us a view into customs and literature of ancient Rome.

The program in chapel, on April 18, was given in honor of Ohio Latin Week. Selections from Ovid, Cicero, Vergil, Plautus, and Horace were read. At the close of the program, all the members joined in singing Gaudeamus Igitur, Integer Vitae, Propina est in Oppido, Scholae, scholae, Panis Angelicus.

This year Les Terpsichores has been very active. We have had classes every Wednesday under the direction of Donna Schwenker and Mrs. Kanengeiser. Les Terps is presenting a spring program which we hope will be a big success, as have been those of the past.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club began the year with a burst of energy, which culminated in a polished one-act play, "The Rehearsal."

We chose for our major production "She Stoops to Conquer." The club offered experience to its members and potential members, not only in acting but also in creating unusual scenic effects.

With cooperation, tireless work, and a challenging spirit, our members ventured into new fields and styles of production. But the club could have done none of this if it had not been for the excellent help and understanding of Miss Crawford, who gave us so much of her time and effort.
